Southwark

Southwark stretches from the internationally renowned cultural quarter along the South Bank of the Thames at its north end, with more urban Bermondsey, Peckham and Camberwell at its centre down to leafy Dulwich at its Southern tip. It incorporates 5 major parks and open spaces suitable for and large scale events.

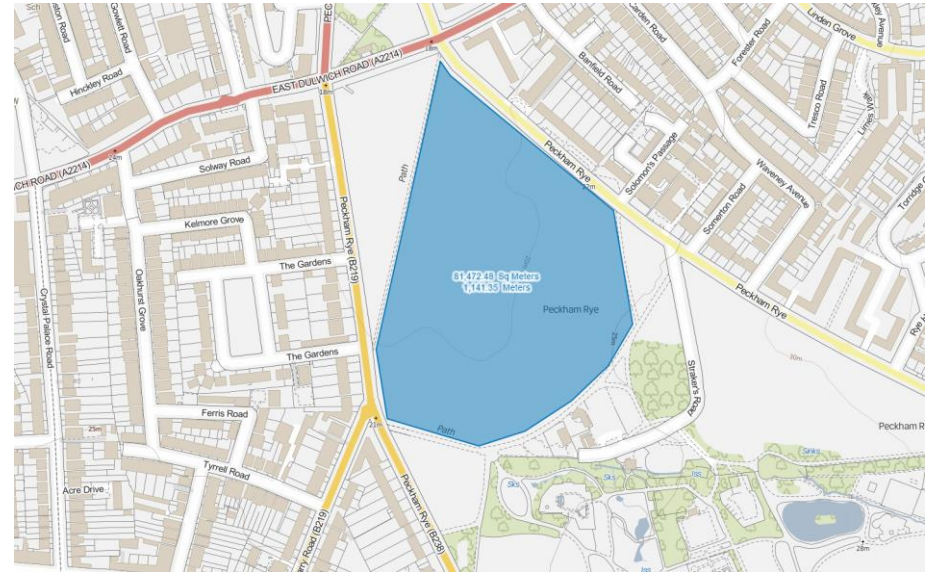

With the highest proportion of 25-40 year olds living in London, Southwark is the youngest and arguably most vibrant place in the city.

Southwark is an inspiring, progressive and entrepreneurial borough. It's home to many of London's most iconic attractions including London Bridge, The Shard, Tate Modern, Shakespeare's Globe, Borough Market, Imperial War Museum, Dulwich Picture Gallery and new cultural hub Peckham and Bermondsey.

Peckham Rye Common

Peckham Rye Park and Peckham Rye Common together make up 113 acres of open recreational grassland, ornamental and water gardens, a lake and woodland and children's play grounds. Peckham Rye common forms the large open expanse at north end of the park.

Fast becoming London's most creative and progressive neighbourhood and close to London Overground and South Eastern rail stations, Peckham Rye Common is the perfect location for large scale and major events
